Interactive game of Clue to provide guests with a weekend of mystery

New Orleans, La (October 1, 2009) – For the Halloween weekend, the Hotel Monteleone will be offering guests an optional package to participate in a Murder Mystery, October 30-November 1.

“As a historic and haunted hotel, The Monteleone sees many visitors who come just for the mystery,” says Andrea Thornton, Director of Sales and Marketing for the hotel. “This fun filled weekend highlights the colorful history of the hotel and the guests that have never been checked out.”

Hosted by Keith and Margo’s world famous Murder Mystery USA, guests will be included in a live, interactive game of Clue. Taking place over three days the festivities will begin with a welcome reception where guests will enjoy hors d’oeuvres and discover the crime. The excitement will continue on Saturday as clues are uncovered at breakfast, lunch and a dinner held in the Riverview Room. The mystery and weekend wrap up on Sunday during a brunch where the murder is solved.

The Murder Mystery package includes 3 days/2 nights deluxe accommodations, cocktail party, breakfast, two lunches, dinner, brunch, tax and gratuities for $499 per person based on double occupancy. Visit www.hotelmonteleone.com for prices and availability.

“This annual event is very popular and we expect to see many familiar faces returning to participate,” added Thornton.
